Colossians 1:21-23

Pastor Hayden Thomas • Compass Bible Church Hill Country • October 24, 2021 • Msg. 21-20 Colossians 1:21-23 21 And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, 1. Recall _____ doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by (v.21) his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, 23 if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. (ESV) 2. Give _____ (v.22)3. Be (v.23)

Application Questions

salvation to someone?

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's sermon. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point of today's study. It is also helpful when you are able to discuss your answers with others. For more information about LifeGroups at Compass Bible Church that utilize these questions as the basis for their weekly discussion, please visit compasshillcountry.org/lifegroups or email us at info@compasshillcountry.org.

1.	Read Romans 8:7-8 and Ephesians 2:12. Spend time reflecting on your past opposition toward God. In what ways were your thoughts and actions proof of your hostility toward God?
2.	Read Romans 5:10 and 2 Corinthians 5:17–21. How can you show your thankfulness this week for the new direction God has given your life in Christ?
3.	Read 2 Corinthians 13:5 and Matt 7:21-23. What are some ways people can be fooled into believing they are Christians? What is the danger of having a "false" faith according to the Bible?
4.	After examining yourself and what the Bible says about genuine salvation, how would you explain genuine
